SUMMARY

Strategic, people-centered executive with 10+ years leading cross-functional teams in digital transformation, collaboration strategy, and operational systems. As VP of Operations at SpiderOak, I've spearheaded initiatives across engineering, HR, and product-driving alignment, facilitating knowledge sharing, and building the connective tissue between strategy and execution.

I thrive in convening diverse stakeholders, creating insight-rich spaces, and surfacing the collective intelligence of complex organizations. My leadership blends curiosity, design thinking, and systems fluency with a deeply human lens.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

SPIDEROAK

Vice President, Operations

Aug 2022 – Present

- Lead operations across Engineering, DevOps, IT, HR, and Customer Success in a distributed, zero-trust SaaS organization.
- Designed company-wide leadership and communications cadence, including weekly all-hands, async updates, and strategic offsites.
- Partnered with finance to secure $13M in Series C funding by aligning internal KPIs with long-term value narratives.
- Spearheaded enterprise tooling migrations (0365, Okta, internal dashboards) that enabled better decision-making and collaboration across teams.

Vice President, Customer Success

Oct 2018 – Jul 2022

- Built and scaled the customer success function, increasing retention by 25% and ARR by 15%.
- Facilitated collaboration between product, support, and sales through integrated systems and shared user intelligence.
- Introduced ML-powered support tools and self-service systems, cutting average ticket resolution time by over 50%.

Customer Success Director

Jan 2017 – Sep 2018

- Led multi-role customer engagement teams, championing a voice-of-customer loop for product insight and executive visibility.
- Launched shared knowledge systems across marketing, support, and product, fostering unified go-to-market operations.
