SUMMARY

Creative, systems-driven executive with 10+ years of leadership experience in cybersecurity SaaS, including extensive work marketing products in high-friction, trust-centric environments. Led marketing teams, shaped GTM strategy for secure communications platforms, and built partnerships with MSPs and channel-focused sales teams. Adept at translating complex cybersecurity stories into memorable narratives that resonate with skeptical audiences.

Deep experience in cross-functional execution—combining engineering fluency, GTM orchestration, customer success, and product strategy. Comfortable operating from boardroom to browser tab. Excels in remote-first cultures and creative, mission-driven companies.
